

LIBRARY FUND TIED UP IN BAYONNE BANK

Closing of the First National Causing Trouble in Other Quarters.

The first of the community complications arising from the suspension of the First National Bank of Bayonne, N. J., came to light to-day when the trustees of the public library announced that all their funds, amounting to $20,000, are still unclaimed.

on deposit in the crippled institution.
There are twenty employees in the library who will have to be paid soon. An effort will be made to negotiate a loan large enough to cover the library payroll.

All depositors in the First National having check accounts were notified to-day to turn in their bank books so that they may be written up to last Saturday. The notice was sent out by National Bank Examiner Charles H. Chapman, who is in temporary charge. Mr. Chapman stated to-day that although he has been at work on the books of the bank for several days he has not as yet supplied himself with material for even a preliminary report.
